THE COURTS.

Pecision Affecting Manufacturing and Mining Companies.

A CONSUL GENERAL'S POWERS

m July, 1874, the United States government set up a staim against the late Symmes Gardner, for merly Assistant Quartermaster in the army, for the sum of $400,000. Since the death of Mr. Gard-mer his vouchers have been submitted to the Treasury Department, and the Third Auditor has recently forwarded to the executors a letter, in which he states that on a supplemental examination into the accounts of the deceased officer a deficit of only $359 97 has been found instead of the large sum previously claimed. The executors will at once reimburse the Treasury Department. How so great an injustice was done the deceased, does not appear, but the contrast in the amounts te a striking one.

The motion for a bill of particulars in the $6,000,000 suit against Tweed, which was set down for argument yesterday in Supreme Court, Chambers, before Judge Lawrence, was again, by consent of counsel, adjourned over until next Tues-

The question as to the constitutionality of the act of the Legislature passed April 30, 1873, abolishing the Board of Assistant Aldermen from and after the 1st day of January, 1875, was revived yesterday in the Supreme Court, General Term, in the proceedings pending by William A. Demorest and Patrick Toner to have their election as Assistant Aldermen for this year declared valid. The case was tried at Special Term before Judge Van Brunt, when a judgment was rendered for the city. An appeal was taken from this judgment to the General Term, and on the case being called yesterday the opposing counsel submitted their briefs without argument. Through a missake the name of Robert Culkinan attache of the Third District Court, was omitsed from the pay roll for January last. Permission was asked from Comptroller Green to correct the error, which he refused to grant, and neither would he pay Mr. Culkin his salary for that onth. As the only means of getting his money Mr. Culkin was obliged to bring suit against the city for his month's pay. The case was tried yesberday before Judge Barrett, who, after hearing the testimony, directed a verdict for the amount claimed, being $107, including interest, besides the costs of the action, which, of course, is only another item added to the legal expenses on the city through Mr. Green's contumacy.

MANUFACTURING AND MINING COM-PANIES.

The complaint in the suit of The People of the State of New York vs. the Standard Union Manufacturing Company, in the nature of a bill in equity, is brought by the Attorney General of the State under the code, asking for the dissolution of the company and for an injunction and receiver. The complaint alleges various grounds for its dissolution—in fact a violation of nearly all the promining companies, and it is further claimed that the company is a fraud and swindle upon the laws of the State of New York and that it is insolvent. The statements in the complaint are sub-stantiated by affidavits. The defendant denies the statements in the complaint are substantiated by affidavits. The defendant dentes the allegations in the bill, and presents affidavits of the stockhoiders and trustees to sustain them. On the presentation of the complaint and affidavits by the Atiorney General, through Mr. Samuel G. Courtney, his representative, Judge Bonohne issued an injunction against the company doing any business, and also appointed Stephen J. Biolack receiver of the assets of the company. The order to continue the injunction and receiver was argued before Judge Lawrence. On the part of the plaintiffs it was contended that the whole incorporation of the company was a frand on the statute; that the essential elements of the law authorizing the formation of such companies had been ignored; that it had no financial omce or place of business in the city of New York; that its whole arrangements, factory, &c. were in New Jersey, and that Jonn L. Mason, its President and managing man, was the entire company, and carried the books of the company wherever he went; that it had no property within the State of New York to tax or reach, and that the courts were utterly powerless to enforce any order against it; that creditors had no remedy unless they went to New Jersey, and in fact that the whole company was a gigantic fraud on the statute. On the part of the defendant it was argued by Messrs, Palmer and De Camp that if this company was a dissolved every other company organized under the Manufacturing laws could be wound up; that it was a bona fide concern; that the frustees and a large majority of the stockholders were satisfied with the management, and that the suit was really in the interest of a rivai company, and that it was perfectly solvent. Judge Lawrence pesserolay morning respects a decision continues, the injunction the interest of a rival company, and that it we perfectly solvent. Judge Lawience yesterday moring rendered a decision continuing the injunction and the receivership, with costs to the plaintiffs. POWERS OF A CONSUL GENERAL In February last William Junker, chief mate of the German bark Phillip Weyerzang, was charged with assault upon Albert Weis, a sailor employed on the vessel. The case was taken before the Marine Court for trial. Pending the trial a motion was made on behalf of Herman R. Schumacker, Consul General of the German Emptre at this port, protesting against the trial of the case in that Court, on the ground that the Court was without Court, on the ground that the Court was without jurisdiction, porsuant to the slipulations embodied in the Consular Convention between the United States and the German Emeire, proclaimed June 1, 1872 Juage Jonchimsen, become whom the motion was neard, denied the same, setting forth his reasons for so doing in avery able and claborate opinion. Pollowing this decision mented was made yesterday in supreme Court, chambers, before Judge Lawrence, for a writ of promotion restraining the Marine Court from the trial of the case. Ex-Governor Salomon mades lengthy argument in support of the motion, to which Mr. R. W. Andrews replied. The points raised on both sides were substantially the same as those presented in the argument become General has, under the treaty referred to, exclusive power to take cognizance of this class of cases, and ine other insisting that the case in question came within the limits of the exceptional clause, inasmuch as the offence charged was of a nature to disturb the peace and public order in the port. The Court took the papers, reserving its decision.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. Before Judge Blatchford. THE GOVERNMENT SUES ON A ONE-HUNDRED DOLLAR CHECK.

An action was tried yesterday in this Court in which the government was the plaintiff and the National Chemical Bank the defendant. The action was brought to recover $100, the amount of a check which passed through the bank and into the Treasury under the following circumstances:-The bank transmitted the check in question to the Treasury, the same having the indorsement of Archibaid A. Smith, and to whom they paid the amount. The bank also indorsed the check. At the Treasury it was discovered that the indorsement was not genuine, and requested the bank to retund. This being denied, the present suit was brought to recover. Mr. Smith testified that he had not indorsed the check, nor had he given permission to any one to indorse for him. He admitted, however, that he had given the firm of L. Brown & Co. a power of attorney to transact business for him. The full indorsement on the check was "Archibaid A. Smith-L. Brown, by J. L. Bliss, attorney." Judge Biatchford heid that Smith had vested in Brown power to indorse for him; that therefore the innorsement was valid and dismissed the complaint. This leaves the responsibility on Smith.

MARINE COURT-PART 1.

Before Judge Gross. ACTION TO RECOVER ELECTION EXPENSES. George P. Webster vs. James A. Deering .- The plaintiff, who was last fall the proprietor of the Harlem Local and carried on a printing office, brings this action to recover $350 and interest, being the value of printing posters, gutter snipes, baflots, &c., to aid in the election of the defendant to the emics of member of Assembly from the Nineteensh district. He testines that a Mr. Devoe called at his office in October, and, saying that he wished to have Mr. Deering's printing done, gave the order in question, at the same time engaging a utill poster, and that on his subsequently calling on the defendant to notify him not to pay the bill to any one but himself, as he understood that a party who had acted as editor of his paper had been out making collections, the reply was made that he had no doubt that Mr. Devoe would so arrange matters that he would not have to pay the bill twice. The defence interposed was three-load—first, that ar, Devoe was not demandable. baffots, &c., to aid in the election or the defondant to the office of member of Assembly from the agent; ascond, that the person engaged to do the printing was a Mr. Novington, and thirdly, Mr. Deering testified that the nominarion was forced upon nim by members of the West Side Association, was accepted very nowillingly this business having suffered during his former term of office) and only on the condition that he should not be called upon to pay any part of the expenses of election, and that any expenses incurred the committee were responsible for. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintin for $336.65.

DECISIONS. SUPREME COURT -CHAMBERS

By Judge Lawrence. McCredie vs. McKnight. - Motion to compel the ordinaser to complete his purchase granted, without costs; order to be seitled on two days' notice. In the matter of Lederer. - Report of referee

In the matter of Lederer.—Report of refered condrmed.

Publidelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company vs. The Excelsior Manufacturing Company.—Cause advanced on calendar and set down for the 19th of May, 1875. No costs of motion.

Diefenback vs. Heizel.—The default in this case is opened on the terms stated in memorandum.

Terwilliger vs. Corcoran.—Motion to change place of trial denied, with $10 costs.

McManon vs. McLonneil.—Motion denied, with $10 costs.

Herrick vs. Herrick.—Motion granted and cause placed on Special Circuit calendar for the third Friday of May.

By Judge Barrett.

Moran vs. Politon et al.; Davidson vs. Alfaro.—Motions denied, with $10 costs.

The Sixin National Bank vs. The Chicago and Alton Railroad Company.—Motion for additional issues denied, with $10 costs

Sperling vs. Price.—Motion granted; $10 costs to defendant, to abide the event.

Crow vs. Merritt.—Motion granted and default opened on payment of $10 term fee, the discursements on the inquest, and $10 costs of opposing this motion, the judgment to stand as security, &c.

Woodward vs. Compion.—Motion denied, but.

Woodward vs. Compton.-Motion denied, but, Woodward vs. Compton.—Motion denied, but, as the question was new, without costs.

Trask vs. Peekskill Piough Works.—The motion to vacate the precept, or to release the goods from the levy thereunder, must be denied, but all further proceedings under said precept must be stayed until the decision of the General Term, or the appeal from the order of March 31, provided such appeal be brought on for argument during the present May General Term.

Butler vs. Wehle.—There is nothing in these papers to snow that the controversy is at an end, or that the plaintiff has sought to discontinue. The motion must be dealed, with leave to renew on further papers.

ne further papers.

Regan vs. Jennings. -- Motion granted unless on further papers.

Regan vs. Jennings.—Motion granted unless plantiff stipulates to refer the action and permit the taking of the testimony of the defendants and their winnesses at Saratoga Springs, $10 costs to abide the event; order to be settled on two days notice, to or by Mr. Shoudey.

Ledgerwood vs. Mars. —I doubt the propriety of he order asked for as to the proposed substitution of a complaint, especially in view of Mr. Clark's affidavit that it is incorrect. But upon the clause of the notice of motion asking general reheff thing the defendant is entirled to an order requiring the complaint to be filed within a given number of days, or that it be deemed abandoned. If that is insufficient, because of the connectaint, the difficulty must be settled in some other manner.

Livermore vs. Wright.—Mr. Bell accounts for the large judgment, but no explanation or denial is made as to the others. It is plain, therefore, that the situation of the parties has changed since the stipulation was given. The stipulation was wably without consideration, and, in view of all the facts, it would be inequitable to hold the attorney to it any longer. The motion to be relieved from such stipulation must therefore, be granted.

Foster vs. Nicholson.—The plaintiff must furnish a further bill of particulars, giving the dates on or about or between which each item of service in the present bill, except the eleventh; also the names of the counsel who are said in the third and fifth items to have been consulted; in other respects the motion is denied, $10 costs, to abide the event.

Biake vs. The International Life Insurance and e event. Biake vs. The international Life Insurance and Biske vs. The International Life Insurance and Trust Company.—Non residence at the time of the commencement of the action is positively sworn to and not denied, and the denial of present non-residence is not by the plaintiff and is merely upon the information and belief of his attorney. Motion granted in $500.

Shea vs. Shea.—The order for the examination of the defendant before a referee is vacated, and the motion for leave to interpose a supplemental answer is granted upon payment of $10 costs.

Voce vs. Cowdrey.—Motion granted upon payment of $10 costs sof opposing the motion.

Nelson vs. Swing.—An adjusted oill of costs is presented to the Court with a notice of motion for readjustment. This raises no question and not even informs the Court of what took place before the Clerk. The motion must be denied, with $10 costs.

Myers vs. Bullmeyer.—The allegation of notice Myers vs. Bullmeyer.—The allegation of notice being dented the autorney can only pursue the defendent for the autornut of the taxed costs as to which there was record notice. The motion must, therefore, be granted to the extent indicated, with $10 costs, unless the desinatant within five days pay to attorney $45 st, and also $10 costs of this motion.

Putnam vs. Nyc.—The statute embraces all controversies between citizens of different states; that is, controversies in general as distinguished from special controversies between citizens of the same State—i.e., such as grow out of grants of the land from different states. There is a rest in the same State—4. such as grow out of grants of land from different states. There is a rest in the sentence (section 2) after each subject of jurnsdiction, and I am of the opinion that it was the intention of Congress to exhaust the constitutional power, except as to the peculiary limitation. The motion must be granted.

Davies vs. Board of Assessors, &c.; Colegrove vs. Same; Sytier vs. Same; Yelverton vs. Same.—
Orders settled as presented by the relators.

Muller vs. Grantz, et al.—The injunction must be confined to intimidation, modified accordingly, and as modified continued. There is a direct authority for this in Springhead S. Co. vs. Riley, 6, i. i. (Eglas) 561, which was not cited upon the argument. The defendants, it is true, deny that threats have been resorted to, but the denial is general, and the incidents narrated by the plaintid's witnesses, amounting in my judgment, if the second of the incidents narrated by the plainting's witnesses, amounting in my judgment, it true, to intimidation, are not specially noticed. Besides, the continuation of the injunction in this modified form until the hearing cannot injure the defeudants if their disavowal of threats be successed.

SUPERIOR COURT—CIRCUIT—PART 3.

By Judge Van Vorst.

Mayer vs. The Mayor, &c.—Complaint. dismissed.

Secridan vs. The Mayor, &c.—The papers show that at the close of the trial, after the verdict was received, the plaintiff moved for a new trial on the minutes, which was denied. That is the decision of this application. The plaintin's remedy is by appeal from the former order.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Before Judge Sutherland. Before Judge Sutherland.

Henry F. Downs, a respectable-looking young man, was placed on trial yesterday in the Court of General Sessions, before Judge Sutherland, on the charge of embezziing $104 62 belonging to his employer, Bosel F. Pickert, a tea merchant, of No. 28 Old slip. In July, 1873, the prisoner, who was em-ployed as bookkeeper and cashier by Mr. Pickert, received $104.62 in a registered letter from Richard Leonard, of Green Island, N. Y., one of the customers of the firm, in payment of a bill of goods. Downs kept the money and wrote to Leonard acknowledging the receipt of the money and signing the name of the firm. In order to cover up his theft he made an entry in the books to the effect that the goods shipped to Leonard had been returned. Downs is alleged to have, at various times, taken sums of money belonging to mis employer, the whole amount of his pecuations amounting to over $3,000. He was tried about a year ago in the General Sessions, but the jury disagreed. The first witness was Mr. Kosel F. Pickert. He testified that the prisoner confessed to him that he had taken the money. Mr. Pickert stated that at present he was a bankrupt. He denied ever having done business under an assumed name, or tried in any way to chest his creditors. The witness was subjected to a very severe cross-examination by Mr. Howe, and at his conclusion Assistant District Attorney Noian amounced that the case for the prosecution was closed. received $194.62 in a registered letter from Richard

NARROW ESCAPE OF AN ACTRESS.

The Katie Putnam Comedy Troupe performed in Paterson on Monday and Tuesday nights. Miss Putnam being in such ill health that she could not sleep sought the aid of chioroform during Wednes-day night to bring the much-desired rest, Saturating a nanokerchief with the anæsthetic drug she ating a handkerchief with the anisathetic drug she placed it over her mouth and was soon in a state of unconsciousness. Her loud, peculiar breathing attracted the attention of Mrs. Lester, a member of the company. The lady entered the room, and seeing the beautiful young actresslying there hale and apparently dead, lost her presence of mind and startied the whole house with her loud cries. This gave rise to the report that hiss Putnam had committed suicide. She appeared to be better yesterday morning, when she left Paterson to fill an engagement at Newark.
